

Kenneth P. Dietrich School of Arts and Sciences
College in High School

2022-2023

Latin: Intermediate Prose
LATIN 0210--3 Credits

Description: GALLIA EST OMNIS DIVISA IN PARTES TRES... This course is an introduction to Latin prose. In this course, we will build on and apply our knowledge of Latin to reading, analyzing, and interpreting selections from Julius Caesar's Commentarii de Bello Gallico, an account of his own military conquests in Gaul. The primary focus for our learning will be strengthening and expanding our knowledge of Latin grammar and building techniques for reading comprehension and translation. We will also pay close attention to Caesar's clear and deceptively simple style. To develop a broader understanding of the work's literary and historical context, we will read and discuss the entire work in English translation.

Prerequisite: Two years of high-school Latin are a prerequisite for this course.

Grading: The grade is determined by the student's performance on three one-hour exams, a final exam, quizzes, and class recitation. Each exam, including the final, is based on the material covered in each unit.

Textbook: The required texts for this course are:

Caesar. Selections from his Commentarii de Bello Gallico, edited by Hans-Friedrich Mueller (Wauconda 2012)
Caesar. The Gallic War translated by Carolyn Hammond (Oxford 2008)

Additional Information: Additional resources for reading Caesar abound. Particularly recommended is the Dickinson College Commentaries' openly accessible online commentary for Caesar's Gallic War, located at <https://dcc.dickinson.edu/caesar/caesar-introduction>.

The following Latin selections, divided into four parts, will be covered in the University of Pittsburgh Latin 0210 course. Individual instructors may supplement with additional selections from Caesar's Commentarii de Bello Gallico or other Latin prose.

Part I:

Book I.1-7

Book IV.24-28

Exam I

Part II:

Book IV.29-36 (first sentence)

Book V.24-27

Exam II

Part III:

Book V. 28-41

Exam III

Part IV:

Book V.42-48

Book VI.13-20

Kenneth P. Dietrich School of Arts and Sciences
College in High School

Academic Integrity: All College in High School teachers, students, and their parents/guardians are required to review and be familiar with the University of Pittsburgh's Academic Integrity Policy located online at <https://www.as.pitt.edu/faculty/policies-and-procedures/academic-integrity-code>.

Grades: Grade criteria in the high school course may differ slightly from University of Pittsburgh standards. A CHS student could receive two course grades: one for high school and one for the University transcript. In most cases the grades are the same. These grading standards are explained at the beginning of each course.

Transfer Credit: University of Pittsburgh grades earned in CHS courses appear on an official University of Pittsburgh transcript, and the course credits are likely to be eligible for transfer to other colleges and universities. Students are encouraged to contact potential colleges and universities in advance to ensure their CHS credits would be accepted. If students decide to attend any University of Pittsburgh campuses, the University of Pittsburgh grade earned in the course will count toward the student grade point average at the University. At the University of Pittsburgh, the CHS course supersedes any equivalent AP credit.

Drops and Withdrawals: Students should monitor progress in a course. CHS teacher can obtain a Course Drop/Withdrawal Request form from the CHS office or Aspire. The form must be completed by the student, teacher and parent/guardian and returned to teacher by deadlines listed. Dropping and withdrawing from the CHS course has no effect on enrollment in the high school credits for the course.