

Intermediate Latin: Verse
LATIN 0220
3 Credits

Description: ARMA VIRUMQUE CANO... This course is an introduction to Latin poetry. Students will read selections from Books I, II, and IV of Vergil's epic, the Aeneid, and will practice reading aloud and scanning Vergil's stately meter, in the dactylic hexameter. Students will also read the whole poem in English for in-class discussion.

Prerequisite: Two years of high school Latin are a prerequisite for this course.

Grading: The grade is determined by the student's performance on three one-hour exams, a final exam, quizzes, and class recitation. Each exam, including the final, is based on the material covered in each unit.

Textbook: The required texts for this course are: Vergil's Aeneid, edited by Clyde Pharr (Wauconda 1998) and Vergil. The Aeneid, translated by David West (Penguin Books 1991).

Additional Information: Vergil's Home Page: vergil.classics.upenn.edu. This website offers "On-line text and commentary," "Bibliography," "Images" from illustrated manuscripts of Vergil's poems, and links to other Vergilian sites.

Academic Integrity: All College in High School teachers, students, and their parents/guardians are required to review and be familiar with the University of Pittsburgh's Academic Integrity Policy located online at www.as.pitt.edu/fac/policies/academic-integrity.

Grades: Grade criteria in the high school course may differ slightly from University of Pittsburgh standards. A CHS student could receive two course grades: one for high school and one for the University transcript. In most cases the grades are the same. These grading standards are explained at the beginning of each course.

Transfer Credit: University of Pittsburgh grades earned in CHS courses appear on an official University of Pittsburgh transcript, and the course credits are likely to be eligible for transfer to other colleges and universities. Students are encouraged to contact potential colleges and universities in advance to ensure their CHS credits would be accepted. If students decide to attend any University of Pittsburgh campuses, the University of Pittsburgh grade earned in the course will count toward the student grade point average at the University. At the University of Pittsburgh, the CHS course supersedes any equivalent AP credit.

Drops and Withdrawals: Students should monitor progress in a course. CHS teacher can obtain a Course Drop/Withdrawal Request form from the CHS office or Aspire. The form must be completed by the student, teacher and parent/guardian and returned to teacher by deadlines listed. Dropping and withdrawing from the CHS course has no effect on enrollment in the high school credits for the course.
